MACY'S HONORS LUNAR NEW YEAR 2017

The "Year of the Rooster" celebrations begin on January 28

New York, NY – January 24, 2017– This month, Macy's stores nationwide will pay tribute to Lunar New Year 2017 with a wide array of educational activities and special events to commemorate the "Year of the Rooster." Through artistic performances, music, fashion, in-store visuals and cosmetic presentations, Macy's will celebrate Lunar New Year highlighting this year's characteristics which instill diligence and courage.

"Macy's is proud to continue our long-standing commitment to diversity, inclusion and respect," said William Hawthorne, senior vice president of Diversity Strategies, Macy's, Inc. "Whether it's through specialized product assortment, in-store events or community partnerships, we strive to celebrate the diverse cultures of our customers and employees in a bigger and better way each year. I am so excited for our Lunar New Year 2017 festivities to begin."

Family-friendly Lunar New Year-themed events will take place in select stores across the country including California, Hawaii and New York from Jan. 18 through Feb. 5. These festivities will feature traditional activities ranging from Lion Dance and instrumental performances to cosmetic tutorials, fashion presentations, authentic refreshments and live music. Select stores will also feature specially curated Mandarin costumes from the Museum of Chinese in America.

As the gifts destination, Macy's is proud to offer a variety of Lunar New Year-themed products. Cosmetics, accessories and fragrances will be featured throughout stores, including specialty celebratory products, packaging, samples, and gifts with purchase. Fashion jewelry will showcase a variety of Lunar New Year product across categories and Michael Kors will offer an exclusive "Year of the Rooster" key charm in a festive cherry and gold. Additional holiday products include items in fashion, home, bedding, Godiva[®] chocolates and housewares, all in the traditional red and gold color palette.

Macy's Lunar New Year festivities will also include commemorative window display treatments, local advertising and comprehensive tourism outreach detailing shopping trips, exclusive savings and events for travelers visiting from China during the holiday.
