"The start of a great school year begins with the excitement of back-to-school fashion," said Cassandra Jones, senior vice president of Macy's Fashion. "With our incredible assortment of fashion-forward styles, beauty and even dorm furnishings and basics, we want to give students a time to shine, helping them look and feel their best while boosting their confidence in and out of the classroom."

As the return to class approaches, Macy's is showing its back-to-school spirit with powerful and fun campaign spots, Time to Shine, showcasing students rocking the latest trends while tackling academics, athletics and the arts, reminding us that confidence makes us effortlessly cool this school year. Featuring incredible styles for every school occasion, the spot's soundtrack features the electrifying and catchy All Eyes On Us (Ou la la la) song by NVDES, and can be viewed across Facebook, Snapchat and Instagram. Back-to-School Fashion

Black and white makes a huge comeback, offering students of all ages, from young kids to college-bound, a cool and modern approach to no-stress dressing. Girls and boys can both rock this trend while incorporating their personal style with graphic t-shirts, athleisure, chunky sole sneakers, belt bags or backpacks and letterman-style jackets.

For young ladies, this school year is all about adding an unexpected edge to classic pieces. Embellished jeans are paired with moto lug sole boots and cool bags in shades of red, sure to add spunk to any outfit. Sweatshirts and jackets are given an update this fall with ruffle, lace and grommet details. And for the hair, scrunchies and hairbands are all the rage.

Boys will walk the halls in style, sporting graphic t-shirts with playful sayings and vibrant designs. Add a relaxed vibe to a crisp shirt with distressed denim and high-top sneakers. Patched jackets, shirts and pants are sure to be staples in students' everyday school looks.

Dorm

Students can ace their space by adding comfy and cool lifestyle essentials from Macy's. Whim by Martha Stewart pillows help with big dreams, while Charter Club towels add a bright pop of color and personalization to any room. Staying healthy during the school year is easier than ever with the Bella Rocket Blender, perfect for smoothies on the go for those morning classes. Don't stop there, skip the dining hall and create fun meals with a Crux toaster and Essentials dish set which are sure to keep even the busiest student on track. Any student can express themselves and stay organized in class with stylish notebook sets from Poppin.

Beauty

Macy's Beauty has the perfect essentials to start off the year fresh outdoors and indoors, with natural Burt's Bees lip balms, Schmidt's deodorants and Kiehl's bodycare.

For young ladies going back to college or just starting out, there's no better way to feel ready than having the perfect eyebrows. Before that first day, head to a Macy's location with a Benefit Brow Bar and pick from styling, waxing, mapping, and many other services. Plus, Benefit now offers more color options than before, from three colors to eight, in their best-selling Gimme Brow+ line to ensure your new brows are the perfect shade. For the beauty-obsessed who are looking for clean beauty options, try out natural skincare products like Origins, Sunday Riley, Korres and Coola. Looking for something you can swipe on and run to class? NUDESTIX has a range of tinted foundations, bronzers, highlighters and eye shadows in convenient sticks, which make for the coolest companion for the girl on the go. Start the year fresh-faced with a selection of masks from TONYMOLY, Patchology, and more while staying hydrated and bright with Clinique's Pep-Start line, which includes holy grail products like exfoliating cleansers, hydrating moisturizers, daily SPF and eye creams.

For the guy who wants to make a great first impression after a long summer away, head over to Macy's Men's Skincare Zone and grab a few must-haves from The Art of Shaving, Anthony, Clinique For Men, Kiehl's or Baxter California.
